1 The Financial Services Authority (FSA)

The FSA is the independent watchdog that regulates financial services. It requires us to give you this document. Use this information to decide if our services are right for you

2 Whose products do we offer?

- We offer products from a range of insurers for - Professional Indemnity Insurance and Directors & Officers Insurance
- We offer products from a limited number of insurers for - Commercial and Office Combined Insurances, Public & Employers Liability, Warranties, Legal Protection and Travel Insurance.

Ask us for a list of insurers we offer insurance from.

3 Which service will we provide you with?

- We will advise and make a recommendation for you after we have assessed your needs.

4 What will you have to pay us for our services?

Nothing unless you decide to proceed with the insurance, fees only become payable if a policy is taken out, based on the following:

- A fee for advice and administration and mid-term adjustment. This can vary depending on the nature of the insurance contract being arranged and size of the business involved.

As a guideline, our standard fees are £28 at the start of the policy and £15 for mid-term adjustments. On larger, more complicated risks we will advise you of any charges before you have to commit or proceed with cover.

You will receive a quotation which will include full details about any fees charged on any particular insurance policy.

5 Who pays us?

We are paid by either the insurance company or underwriters with whom we have placed your business. To avoid conflict of interest, and to show transparency, we undertake to present to you, on our quotations, the suppliers we have approached to obtain terms on your behalf and brief you about costs and any policy wordings that may be of interest or an advantage to you.

We are an independent broker and not tied to any one company.
